Palm Coast Data to Provide Fulfillment Services for the Launch of Nickelodeon Magazine

Palm Coast, Fla - Palm Coast Data's announcement of a full service fulfillment agreement with Papercutz, publisher of Nickelodeon Magazine, reinforces its unsurpassed ability with new magazine launches.

Palm Coast Data will deliver its industry-leading eCommerce, digital support and traditional fulfillment services for Nickelodeon Magazine.

"Nickelodeon already reaches millions of children worldwide," says Sven Larsen, VP of Marketing for Papercutz. "We wanted to help them grow their audience and deliver exciting content to it. Palm Coast Data is capable of supporting this mission in print, on the web and digitally. We are excited to partner with an industry leader that understands our objectives and can help us meet them."

"Palm Coast Data has a long history with successful magazine launches," says Rory Burke, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Our ability to deliver seamless digital and print fulfillment services will enable *Nickelodeon Magazine*to reach its audience across multiple platforms. We look forward to supporting Papercutz as it introduces Nickelodeon to its audience.

Palm Coast Data begins services for the monthly magazine in the summer of 2015. For more information, visit www.palmcoastdata.com, or keep up to date with the company on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/PalmCoastData.
