FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Register for FEMA assistance online

September 13, 2017 – Residents who sustained losses from Hurricane Irma can begin applying for assistance with FEMA online.

“If you have damages, it is a good idea to get this process started,” said Flagler County Public Safety Emergency Manager Steve Garten. “Those who are without power can go to the Flagler County Library in Palm Coast.”

To register online, go to www.disasterassistance.gov. Residents can also download the FEMA App by clicking on Disaster Resources.

Those who prefer can register by calling 800-621-FEMA (3362). The toll-free numbers are operational between 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week until further notice.

“Make a phone call, don’t take a phone call,” said County Administrator Craig Coffey. “FEMA representatives will not call you out of the blue. Do not give out your personal information to anyone who you have not called.”

Check for current information on Flagler County’s website www.flaglercounty.org, or tune into the county’s partner radio station WNZF, 1550 am, 106.3 fm, KIX fm 98.7, which regularly provides updates during its programming.
